

THE ARCHITECTS ASSOCIATION MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

Members of The Architects Association shall:

1. Act with honesty, integrity, humility and professional courtesy.
2. Respect the Association's Christian foundation, objects and constitution, regardless of personal beliefs.
3. Treat others with dignity and respect, including those holding differing opinions.
4. Uphold high standards of professional competence, ethical practice and personal responsibility.
5. Not represent themselves as architects, or use the protected title of architect, unless duly registered or otherwise legally entitled to do so in the relevant jurisdiction.
6. Encourage constructive discussion, cooperation, learning and the advancement of architecture.
7. Avoid conduct that brings the Association or the architectural profession into disrepute.
8. Respect the Association's independence and political neutrality, and not represent personal views as those of the Association without authorisation.
9. Members who seriously or repeatedly breach this Code may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Association's constitution.

Adopted in on this 20th day of October 2026.
